

Association of Tropical Agricultural and Environmental Sciences

The ASAT Association was founded in 1994 at University of Florence, by a group of students and graduates in Tropical and Subtropical Agricultural studies with the aim of becoming a reference point for those with a professional and cultural interest in tropical regions and in rural development and cooperation.

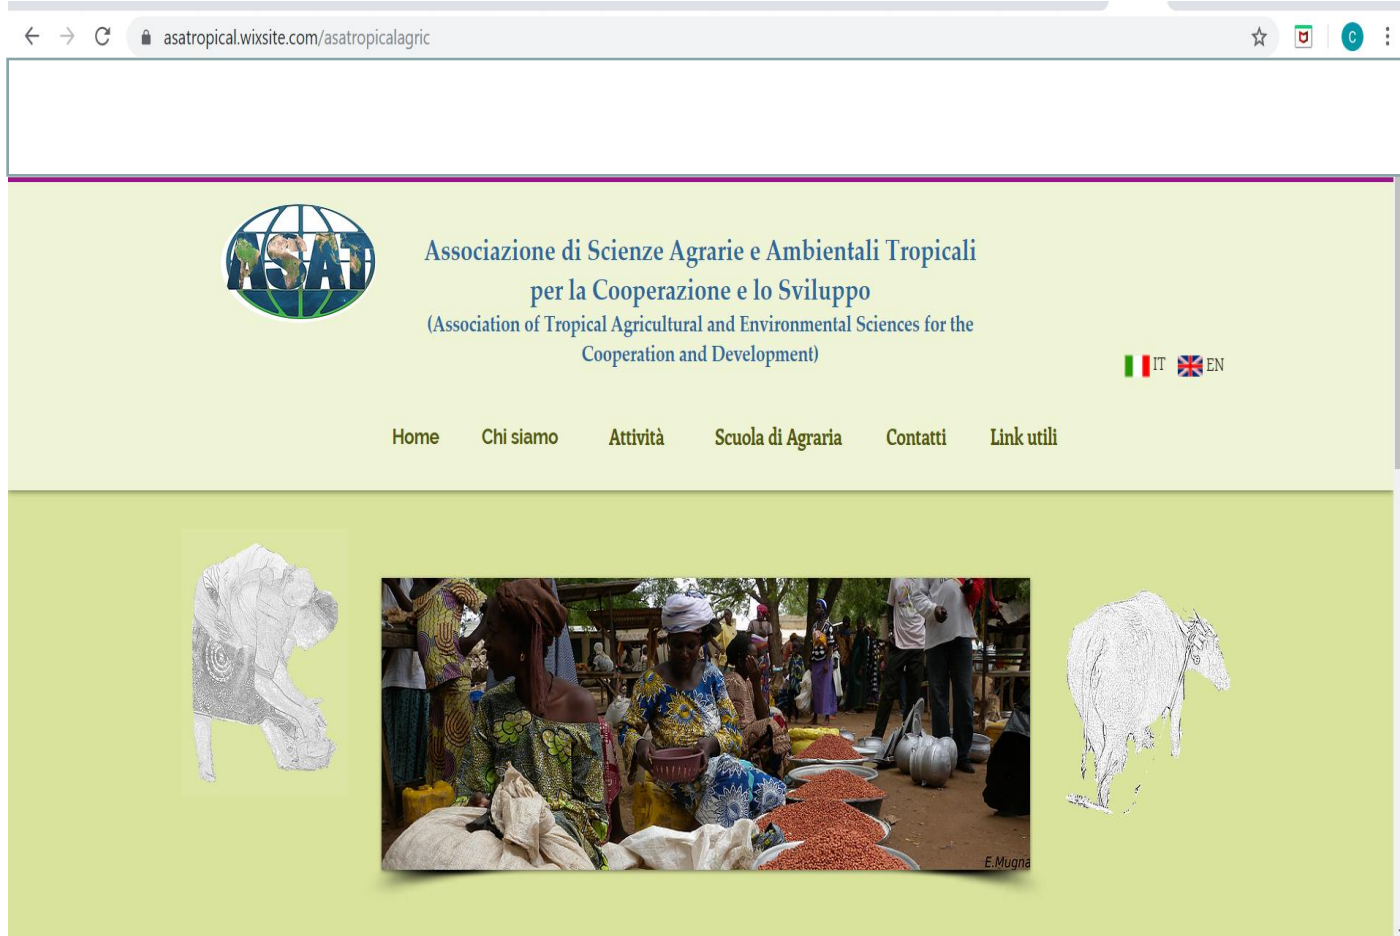

Activities:

- keeps in contact the community whose members are often working around the world.
- JobFinder (TrovaLavoro): information on work opportunities in tropical agriculture
- organizes “Tropical Thursdays»
- organizes informative seminars

Facebook Group (ASAT Tropicalisti):

- Allows and encourages exchange of information among members on agriculture related problems, to all members.
- Particularly useful for quick response to those who are working abroad and need technical information
